Woorlshoffer said yesterday that, all things considered, he thought that it would be very imprudent, just now, for any one to soll any considerable quantity of stocks short. He denied the Chicago Times Sunday story that he was builing tork, and said that he had not dealt in provisions in ten years. Buil points were strong at Long Branch Sunday to buy Eric for 20 this week, Kamsas and Texas for a considerable rise. Also, to purchase the Atlantic and Pacific incomes, and the Atlantic and Pacific western division firsts. The latter securities are expected to advance considerably upon the official announcement to-day of very important agreements and contracts with the Atchison, Topeks and Santa Fe railroad, which are just signed. There is large short interest in the firsts.

the general charge of unchastity was even listened to by respectable men. The accusation startled and shocked the community. "Can it be true that Grover Cleveland is a man of impure life?" was the first question asked. "This charge is made with names and dates. Let us wait for his absolute denial. Then let us see the authors of the scandalous charge prosecuted and punished for criminal libel." The authorized reply comes after just twenty one days that were crowded full of promises of complete and triumphant refutation: "We absolutely deny the charge that Grover Cleveland is an unchaste man; his whole life is a refutation of the calumny. We, who are his neighbors, know his virtues. life is a refutation of the calumny. We, who are his neighbors, know his virtues. True, there is an illegitimate son of his by the woman Halpin, but waiving that point, we defy his cowardly and malignant accusers to produce the slightest evidence of his alleged unchastity."

This answer conclusively meets the demand for accurate information concerning Mr. Clayeland's personal babit, but it demand for accurate information concerning Mr. Claveland's personal habit; but it meets it in a way that both his friends and his opponents must deplore.

Another very serious charge was contained in the original publication of the Halpin-Cloveland scandal. It was alloged that saven years ago, when the child was about 2½ years old—that is to say, in the year 1877—the mother's importunities so annoyed Mr. Cloveland that, without logal warrant, he had her seized by detectives in his employ, who shut her up in the Providence Insane asylum. The several defenders of Mr. Cleveland do not dispose of this accusation in a satisfactory mandefenders of Mr. Cleveland do not dispose of this accusation in a satisfactory manner. The Elecaing Post adds to the other damage which it has done to the candidate's reputation by asserting that the chosen paramour of Mr. Cleveland—the mother of his child—was a common drunkard, and that the detectives who were employed by Mr. Burrows (a lawyer engaged by Mr. Cleveland to do work distantful to himself) found Maria Halpin in a fit of delirium tremens, and therdupon put her into an "inebrinto" asylum. On the other hand, the Rev. Dr. Kinsley Twining, who investigated the matter in behalf of the Independent newspaper, says that the officersent after Mrs. Halpin, "seting on the right of personal judgment," ing on the right of personal judgment," lid, in fact, place her in the Roman Catholic Providence asylum, but that she was not incarcerated," and "was not entered for a permanence." In Mr. McCune's statement in the Buffislo Courier the episode is ment in the Buffalo Courier the episode is summarily dismissed as a "separation of the mother and child by the removal of the former to an inebriate asylum." The sixteen independent republicans, said to be "prominent citizens of Buffalo," who sign the latest certificate of Gov. Cleveland's good moral character, merely say that "the allegations respecting her (Maria Haipin's) abduction and ill treatment are wholly false." We do not know what were the results of the Mr. Horstio C. King's explorations of this part of the scandal. His general assurance that there is nothing in the Halpin matter which need provent the Rev. Henry Ward Isecher from voting for Mr. Clevoland is probably satisfactory to both of those Beccher from voting for air. Cleverand is probably satisfactory to both of those gentlemen.

The charge of abduction and inhumanity is denied; the specification that the woman was seized without legal warrant, and that she was locked up in an asylum and that she was locked up it an asylum by men acting in Mr. Cleveland's interest, is admitted.

The general chargethat Mr. Cleveland, apart from the Halpin case, is known in Buffalo as a man of Heontions habits, is emphatically denied by all the gentlemen who have undertaken his defense. On who have undertaken his defense. On this point the evidence preponderates in his favor. It is not encouraging, however, to observe that nearly all of Mr. Cleveland's defenders attempt to shield him from the full responsibility for his act and Maris Halpin's misfortunes by representing the woman as a degraded and shameless wretch. So far as we can learn, from a careful examination of all the defensive statements, there is an absolute lack of the evidence on this point that alone could justify such a course. Surely, Mr. Cleveland did the woman injury enough nine years ago, when he was not oneigh nine years ago, when he was not yet a candidate for the president of the United States!

Judging solely from these statements in extenuation of facts which are not denied, we are forced to conclude that if the things now developed had been known as the country three ments ago, there to the country three months ago, there would not have been in the United States of America at man less likely to be nominated for president than Grover Cleveland, of Bullalo.

She came from Tolodo, and was supplied with a little basket of provisions, several boxes of candy and some applies, and had sewed on the bosom of her little dress a piece of white mustle on which the following was written plainly in indellible ink; "This little 6-year-old girl was stolen from its mother and has been missing two years. Through chains of circumstances the whoreabouts of the mother has been ascriatined to be at St. Albans, W. Va., whither the child is bound. A fisket and money have been placed in the hands of the conductor, providing for her comfortable transportation, and we appeal to the generous and sympathetic natures of railroad mon to look to her safe and comfortable delivery to her mother at St. Albans.

A number of ladies interested themselves in the little waif and did all they could to quiet her fears in regard to the trains. From what the little girl said, it was learned that she had been entiled from home nearly two years ago, presumably by a hand of gypsies, and kept in their charge until a few, days ago, when she was recognized at Talodo by some hadjes who knew her sheduction. The mother believes the child doesd, and has mourned her loss as such for more than a year, giving up all hopes of ever seeing her again. The child was placed on a south bound train in charge of the conductor, who will deliver her to another conductor, who will deliver her to another conductor, a hand, and has mourned her loss as M. W. AYER'S

"Medical science has produced no other ano-dyne expectorant so good as ATER'S CHERRY FECTORIA. It is invaluable for diseases of the threat and lungs."

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a bousehold in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any threat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitts, Larnygitis, and even acute Procumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small dozes, is pleasant to the faste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTOKAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.
